“ Shirley and I went all 12 years of school together. In high school we would go out and have her father pick us up. We would go to a restaurant, where her father would always treat us. Had good times growing up. Wonderful family. Kind, loving, and giving family. At her sister Marge service, She caught me outside where she was having a smoke. I asked her if she was going to quit, she said "why? She told me she would be visiting sister Marge soon anyway. I respected her wishes, and we talked quite awhile. When she told me she was going into service after graduation, I tried talking her out of it. She served our country with honor and bravery. Thank you my dear friend for your service, I will miss you my friend forever. Barb Schneider
