“ Mary Ann, Jim,

I was pleased to have been able to meet with Alice again recently, after first meeting her about three years ago, but of course saddened to learn of the coming of her final days. She was always a direct and clear communicator with me even to our final meeting, during which I respected her wish to stop our walking activity when she felt she needed to. Yet, she had made an effort. It was always a privilege to visit and work with her.

Best always to you and her family.
