Brenda was a loving, caring, and the most compassionate person one would ever meet. She lived her life in giving to others. She demonstrated this in the love of her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and everyone she met.

She enjoyed sewing and making quilts. It was her passion for many years, and all her children and grandchildren received at least one. She made others for her extended family as well. She loved to cook for her very large family, and each meal was served with love.

She loved God, and was active in church, including the Family Worship Center in Park Falls, WI.
