“ From out of the blue, Carl landed in Des Moines Iowa one summers day asking for a job. After talking to him for a few minutes I realized we were perfect for each other. We do concrete const. and he fit in perfect. Carl was ten years older than me , but that didn't stop him. He was a man of good moral character and very ambitious. We laughed together, worked hard together, and enjoyed each others company. He shared stories of his military experience, his family, and you could tell he was raised with good values. I only knew Carl for six months , but he left me a better person when he went back home. I will miss my friend Carl as we all will, but there is hope we will meet again.

“ Paul, Scott, Don, and Annie, My heart is with you as you journey through this difficult time. Your Dad was such a fine man, and was especially good to our Mom (Ginger). He was surely met by his wonderful family waiting in heaven. "Well done, good and faithful servant." Sending prayers and peaceful energy, Ruth Johnson (John and Ginger's daughter)
