“ We're going to miss you Aunt carol. On your way to those pearly gates if you see brother Jeff could you help him along. He might still be on his way. Love from Brad, Clair and Tim and the family Jenni, Deanna, Jamie and Kelsey. Remembering your face at all the sporting events cheering all the kids on. You will always will be remembered as a precious and special person.

“ Carol rarely missed game night, climbing up and down those steep stairs at my apartment. We all had so much fun laughing, gossiping and reminiscing. We always had plenty to munch on during game night, in fact some times I think that was the main reason for getting together other than just enjoying each other's company. Oh and the wine, don't forget the wine. We will miss you Carol P. Love you always and forever.
