“ When I was very young and was first going with your uncle bob I had went to a thanks giving at you grandmas . I felt so out of place just sitting there after dessert ,your mother took notice of this young girl sitting there feeling almost ill lol . I'll never forget her getting up and putting her hand on my shoulder and said come on Debbie lets go start the dishes . We talked we laughed , and did all the dishes . I will never forget her kindness to me that day , if only for a moment that one Thanksgiving 51 years ago ,she made me feel like I belonged Caroline I will never forget you . And I know god has put his hand on your shoulder now and said , come with me you are home . Prayers to your family .
