“ Oh Cheryl. I remember so many things because we grew up together. I was only 7 yrs older than you. One thing still sticks in my mind and it makes me laugh. We were playing in the basement of my mom's home and you bit me in the stomach. It hurt so, and I cried. I think you got a good whooping from it. Didn't stop us from being close. You always had the most beautiful smile. I adored you, but never told you. Rest in piece my dear niece. (Aunt Kathy (Mrotek) Blick.
