“ Dear Mr. Faltinosky, Cristy, and Eve,

So sorry to hear about your wife/mom passing. So many memories. Pretty summer days with your mom mowing the lawn. It always looked immaculate. Your beautiful house and the table always set for a lovely meal. Menu planning. Gardening. Camping. Your pretty mom with a great smile and a cheerful hello. The arrival of Eve. Wonderful memories of a great family. The memories are what stay with us and help us through our everyday. Praying for you all and hoping you find comfort and some sweet times in your remembrance. Love you all! Candace Hebert

“ Dear George, Cristy, Eve and families,

We are so sorry to hear about Deb. Even though we have hardly seen you all over many years, we will always remember that you were one of the first friends that we met when we moved to the Butternut area. We have so many wonderful memories of Deb. The wonderful meals she made, her gardening, the cross country skiing, and all of the fun times we had together. We will always remember her.

*With our deepest sympathies
