“ I was in shock and believe I am still am as tears flow to hear of your loss. Wanting to send an e-mail to her. This picture is perfect. I had seen Diane on March 10. She was the best massage therapist, friend, encourager, and supportive. Even when things maybe a little rocky, she would say, "It is all good". There was always a positive side even if something didn't turn out as planned.
My deepest sympathy to all of the Wagner and Radlinger Family as well as friends and acquaintance she touched. The Lord give each of you peace, comfort and strength.

“ Heaven surely gained an angel on March 15th. Diane was very loving, caring, & sharing person. She always had a smile and helping hands to extend no matter what. Our daughters were classmates at St Anthony's Catholic School, so we were able to get to know each other, and she cut hair beautifully! Always willing to help and be there for her children always! Many of us are going to miss Diane! Our sympathy to the Wagner & Radlinger families.
