“ My Sympathy goes out to the family of Donavan. I always the thought the name Donavan Jourdan would be the perfect name to be in the 'Marquee Lights' Growing up years younger I remember those athletes who set the standard for us younger boys at BHS. Donovan, Jack Keily, Bucky Steiner, Cotton Dicke, etc. We will never know everything Donavan has endured, treasured, or even done for others. There is a part deep down in each one of us that is unknown to others – sometimes even to ourselves, because we do so with humility....Its just way we are..... In a sense we don't need to know that deep down part of ones life. But we can be grateful and thankful, that we shared in their life. And then we can go on living and remembering.., how we can best honor their life. We can best honor Donavan's life By helping someone we may not even know have a better moment, a better day, a better life. Deacon Bob
