

Douglas Scott Aubuchon

November 19, 1960 - July 25, 2025

Douglas Scott Aubuchon

age 64, of Park Falls, died peacefully with his wife by his side on Friday, July 25, 2025.

Doug was born on November 19, 1960, in Illinois, the son of Kendall and Laurel (Lohman) Aubuchon. His early life and schooling began in Illinois, and his family later moved to Brookfield, Wisconsin, where Doug continued his education. After high school, he began his millwright apprenticeship with Briggs and Stratton in Brookfield where he worked his way to management with 37 years of service.

In 2001, Doug met the love of his life, Deborah Scherr-Burgey. They were married on April 1, 2016, and in 2017 they moved to their lake house on Le Tourneau Lake to enjoy the peaceful Northwoods life.

After retiring, Doug continued to share his knowledge and passion for fishing by working part-time at St. Croix, where he helped customers with enthusiasm and expertise. He was known for his strong work ethic and generous spirit, always ready to lend a hand to neighbors and friends. Doug loved the outdoors, especially hunting, fishing, and cutting firewood. Most of all, he cherished spending time with his family and friends.

Doug is survived by his loving wife, Debbie of Park Falls; his son, Garrett (Lauren) Aubuchon of West Bend; and his soon-to-arrive first grandchild. He is also survived by his stepdaughter, Mellisa (Ben) Urban of Hartland, and step-grandchildren Logan, Addison, and Dylan. Other survivors include his mother-in-law, Dianna Scherr of Park Falls; his sister-in-law, Brenda (Jim) Burgmeier; brothers-in-law Glen (Denise) Scherr and Bruce Scherr; and many cousins, relatives, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, David; and his friend, Thomas Schmitt.

Private family services will be held at a later date.

Birch Street Funeral Service is assisting the family.

“ I have many fun and adventurous memories of times spent with Doug as kids, when my family would visit with Doug’s family in Clarendon Hills, IL and with our grandparents in nearby Downers Grove. We would run down from his house to a small nearby lake, and he taught me to how to fish the lake and we caught lots of fish! Those were great times! My sister Annette and I would hang out and play games with Doug and his younger brother David in their upstairs loft bedroom. Then we’d head over to our grandparents’ house (Grandma Jenny and Grandpa Glenn.) and in the evening on the back porch we’d fire off paper-match rockets from a row of bent paperclips. Grandpa Glenn taught us how to make them by putting a bit of foil over the match head leaving an opening for the thrust to fire out once you ignited the match head underneath the foil and off they go! Awesome fun! Along with catching fireflies in the backyard those were great memories! We’d also take fun trips to the Brookfield Zoo near Chicago and visit our Grandfather Harvey Sr. in Downers Grove.

After Doug’s family moved to Brookfield, WI, along with my grandmother, we’d have fun visits at their home and got to check out Doug’s Harleys in the garage. Never got to ride one unfortunately, lol.

It was nice to re-connect with Doug in the past few years and talk and visit with Deb also. I really loved his positive and graceful attitude toward life and all his medical struggles, he still is an inspiration for me. I was hoping we could cross paths again sometime with a trip to hunt and fish on my aunt’s property in rural E. Washington near the Canadian border. I’ll remember and give you a loud shout out next time I’m out there Doug, you’ll be really missed! Sending continued prayers Deb to you and your family,
Mark
