

Dylan Alan Wegner

March 1, 1993 - July 18, 2020

Dylan Alan Wegner

Age 27, of Butternut, died after a tragic accident on Saturday, July 18, 2020.

He was born on March 1, 1993, in Woodruff, the son of Todd and Bonny (Bortz) Wegner. Dylan was a graduate of the Butternut High School and earned a Bachelor's Degree in Natural Resources Law Enforcement from the University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point. Although he was too humble to recognize it, Dylan had a great impact on his community as an Ashland County Deputy Sheriff and volunteer firefighter with the Butternut Fire Department. Dylan was willing to drop everything to help anyone in any way he could, even if it meant giving a little of himself. This was apparent throughout his whole lifetime, from little on, looking out for his older brother Jesse who has special needs. Dylan was a light in the lives of so many and the heart and soul of his family. He was the most humble, kind, hardworking, and light-hearted man, taken away too soon and will be dearly missed. Dylan was an avid hunter and fisherman and loved anything to do with getting his hands dirty, getting outdoors, and spending time with his friends and family.

He was never one to ask for help and was very self-sufficient, being determined to get any job thrown at him done. Dylan often referred to himself as "a jack of all trades, master of nothing," but anyone who knew him knows he was skillful in many ways. Not only was Dylan a great man, but a devoted father who loved being with Breanna and his son Easton. Dylan was to marry the love of his life, Breanna on August 8, 2020, promising to love her for better or for worse, until death do them part.

He is survived by:

his fiancée Breanna Hanson

his son Easton

his parents: Todd and Bonny Wegner

his brother Jesse

his sister Sujata

maternal grandmother: Marion (Jim) Moccardine

paternal grandfather Bill Wegner

his niece Annaliese

his future mother and father-in-law Terry and Michelle Hanson future brother and sister-in-law Brooklyn Hanson and Brad Hanson and many aunts, uncles, and other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather Elden Bortz, his paternal grandmother Nancy Wegner, his uncle David Bortz, and his good friend and mentor Stanley Rybak Jr.

Funeral services will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Butternut on Friday, July 24, 2020, at 11:00 am. Rev. John Deitz will officiate.

Burial will follow at Union Cemetery in Butternut.

A visitation will be held on Thursday at the church from 4:00 pm until 8:00 pm and on Friday from 9:00 am until the hour of the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials for Dylan's son, Easton, would be greatly appreciated.

Birch Street Funeral Service is assisting the family.

“ Dylan was one of the most kind and caring little boys I had ever met and he was the same as an adult. He was also one heck of a loving friendly officer when I ran into him. Very proud of his little boy when we had talked . My deepest sympathy goes out to his parents, siblings, Breanna, and his beautiful little boy and the rest of his family friends , crew members, and Ashland police department co workers. God be with each and everyone of you. Faith and Mike Gwinn and JordanPetroski

“Dylan once told me that it was so hard leaving Easton when he had to go to work and that his favorite part of his day was coming home to his little family. He told me and many others that the day Easton was born was the greatest day of his life. He so loved being a father and was looking forward to being a husband.

Dylan was an awesome guy! After Jay passed he took upon himself to check on me every now and then!! And when I would see him off duty always asked you doing ok? Let me know if you need anything or if anyone bothers you out there!!! Breanna, Easton, the Hanson family, and Todd & Bonny and family, you have my heartfelt sympathy! ❤️💔😞.

Bonny & Todd,
There are no words to take away this pain, but know that I know for certain one person was at Heaven's gate to greet him with open arms. His Uncle David is taking care of him now! Please know that my memories of Dylan will be cherished. Although, I did not see him much in recent years, I was told by many people what an outstanding police officer he was and Daddy to his little boy. I have a heart full of memories when he was a little boy and spent time with Nick and Sean. You and your entire family have been in my constant prayer. Love to you all! Lisa Bortz Woelfel

I just heard of this 2 days after we visited Park Falls/Butternut. We just got home & my ex-husband called my daughter to let us know the sad news. I was invited to meet Mariann & Jim (grandparents). What a wonderful visit. I'm so sorry for your loss. May Dylan be an angel watching over his beloved family. I've been saying prayers for the entire family since I heard the horrible news. May your hearts be lightened from sorrow each passing day through the grace of God.
