“ If we stayed at grandmas you always had good stuff to eat. She baked all the time even when she had to work. She would go to bed between 2-3 and catch a few winks before she had to get up for work. In the morning you got fresh eggs, bacon and homemade bread, toasted. Yummy. Before bed I don't care if we were in high school she would ask if we were ready to go into the nest. Never go to bed always the nest. Love you my sweet sweet grandma.

I remember many times visiting super nice Aunt Elaine with my dad, mom, (Les and Kimiko) and my husband, Karl also. I agree Faith that those breakfasts she could make on that old stove was so super amazing. She was one of the nicest ladies I've ever known. She was so happy. She loved her home with all of her animals that she cared about so deeply. She cared about everybody very deeply also, especially her family. She was always so humble and seemed to never want to talk about herself. She seemed to love taking care of people and people cared deeply about her. Rest in Peace, Aunt Elaine.

“ When we were young, my sister, Chris and I went to church with Grandma, and in the winter months, before she woke us up, she'd put our church clothes on the oil heater so they'd be warm when we put them on.
