Celebrating the life and the eternal life of Eugene Henry Osterhaus

Eugene Henry Osterhaus, age 85, of Mercer, Wisconsin was born March 1, 1931 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He was welcomed into heaven and into the loving arms of his Savior on February 25, 2017, just a few days before his 86th birthday. He is survived by a brother, Glenn F. Osterhaus of Dausman, Wisconsin and a sister, Susan L. Halm of LaGrange, Illinois. He was preceded in death by his wife, Betty (nee Bell) Osterhaus.

Gene was a veteran of the Korean War. He spent his working career with Continental Bakery in Waukesha, Wisconsin. He and his beloved wife, Betty, moved from Waukesha, to Mercer some thirty years ago, appreciating the blessings of God's creation in the northwoods. For a time in his retirement in Mercer, Gene worked part-time for the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. He loved nature, especially the many birds around his house that he enjoyed watching and feeding. Also, he was an avid fisherman.

Gene was a committed Christian who was an active member of Faith Lutheran Church in Mercer. He served as an Elder and President of the congregation and enjoyed working with young people. He never lost his desire to learn from God's Word, participating in regular Bible study with others as recently as just weeks before his death.

The funeral will be (was) held at Faith Lutheran Church in Mercer on February 27 at 11:00 a.m. Rev. Paul Devantier, Pastor of Faith, will conduct (conducted) the service.

The Novitzke Funeral Home is assisting the Family
