“ We did everything together in the early years, we even celebrated our birthday on the same day. Our favorite place was our Aunt Ella and Uncle Gene’s on Augustine Lake. We loved it there, so much that our parents would have to come and get us or we would have stayed all summer. The main reason we didn’t want to come home was Ella would give us anything we wanted, food, candy and fishing equipment to hit the lake. The years took us in different directions, but always enjoyed visiting when we could. Rest In Peace my friend and cousin. Guy

“ So very many wonderful memories with Frank and the Zach family throughout the years. Spending time at the lake cabin, at the store, snowmobiling, basketball games, holidays...so many happy fun times. And although I'm sad that Frank has passed on to the spirit world to be with his mom, dad, sister, niece, and brother in law, I have MANY fond memories that I will forever cherish. I love you Tim, Karen and Connie...Bless you!
