“ Jimmy and I stayed in contact via Facebook and it was always good to hear from him. He was a good man gone way too young. He is in a better place at peace. He will be missed my friend.

“ My sweet 1st nephew Jiminy Cricket I held you the day your mom got home from the hospital. I called you my Jiminy Cricket. You have always had a big big place in our hearts. Any thing we done for you was of our love and our heart bond. We will miss you so much our hearts are hurting but we had 65+ years of memories and that's special. I know you would have been so proud of your brother Lou. He did above and beyond what you, uncle Dean and I talked about. The love of your friends and family are over flowing. Rest in peace Jim (a.k.a.) Jiminy Cricket. From Aunt Dora and Uncle Dean. Ribbet Ribbet Ribbet love Aunty Frog. Uncle Toad.
