“ Damn man. I could believe it yesterday and was in denial, but seeing this makes reality set in. You and my brothers grew up together playing football, soccer, and basketball. We had some great times after school going to your house and your mom having a pizza and Mountain Dew for us. I remember those days going to WIR every week or just riding around bumping burbans and lacs on the beta. We use to ball up at Huntley and down at Peabody before I had to go to work and sometimes was late because we were in a tight game. Remember that night listening to late night tip and someone moved those barricades and we drove into that pit? We were always together through high school and even after just chilling or getting into something. I remember when I was living in Michigan and I would come down to visit my dad and then go and play poker with you and the boys. Even though I didn't get to see you that often when I moved and started a family, we always picked up where we left off like I was never gone. I have so many great memories with you that I will never forget. We def lost a good one to soon. My heart hurts and hurts for your family and friends. I will keep them all in my thoughts and prayers. Rest In Peace buddy and tell my dad hi.

“ Our condolences to Jason's family and friends, he left us way to soon. He was a great coworker, he taught me a lot. And was also a friend and at times a confidant, I was really just getting to know him well. I can guarantee he will be remembered and missed by all who had the pleasure to have him touch their lives. RIP Jason.

“ So welcoming and genuine. Always met me with a smile whether it was a planned get together or a random rendezvous. Jason touched so many people with his kind soul and welcomed them to be a part of his life experiences without prejudice. Sending love to your family and thankfulness for the opportunity to have Jason as a true friend I could always go to no matter what. His kindness and memories will live on forever in all the hearts he touched.
