

Jerome "Jerry" J. Habas

June 16, 1964 - June 12, 2026

Jerome "Jerry" Jay Habas of Minneapolis, Minnesota, passed away at the age of 61 at Regions Hospital. Jerry was born on June 16, 1964, in Park Falls, Wisconsin to James and Jean (Ante) Habas. He grew up in Park Falls and attended high school there before later moving to the Minneapolis area, where he made his home for many years.

Jerry was a hands-on person who enjoyed working with his hands and building a lot of different things. He spent time working on projects and took pride in creating and fixing things. He appreciated the simple pleasures in life: fishing, spending time camping at Boundary Waters, and being surrounded by family and friends.

Those who knew Jerry will remember his sense of humor and his ability to make people laugh. He enjoyed joking with others and bringing smiles to those around him. He could be stubborn at times, but that determination was simply part of who he was. Above all, Jerry valued the people he cared about and enjoyed sharing life's everyday moments with them.

He is survived by his father James Habas of Park Falls, one brother and two sisters: John (Doris) Habas of Mason, Cheryl (Steve) Parker of Grafton, and Donna (Paul) Below of Green Bay, and many nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his mother Jean, his brothers Joseph, James, Jeffrey and his infant nephew Tyler.

A graveside service will be held at St. Agnes Cemetery in Ashland at a later date.

Jerry will be remembered for his quick wit, hardworking nature, and the friendships and family connections that meant so much to him.

Birch Street Funeral Service is assisting the family.

www.birchstreetfuneralservice.com

Tribute Wall

BS

“ Jerry helped build our house, so talented. Along with his brother Jeff, both so talented. Proud of there craft. My deepest sympathy to this family!

Barbara Schneider - 7 minutes ago