“ Our God has received thru the pearly gates of heaven a very strong, kind, and lovable man who I have admired and lived in my life. My dad Jerry. He was such a hard working man who worked long hours every day, working many jobs to provide for his family and for anyone who needed help. As a child and young teenager, he helped his dad on the farm and the woods without complaining and helped his maternal grandfather on the farm as well. It was a treat to get a quarter from his grandfather helping on the farm. He had such fond memories growing up on the farm and working in the woods. It was very hard work but he never seemed to mind. He had the greatest work ethic that had instilled in his children as well. I will never forget him and he will always be in my mind and heart forever. May he Rest In Peace with the lord as his work is done here on earth.

My cousin Jerry certainly was a hard worker. He grew up working next to my father Wilfred & my father considered him a great friend. His children should all be proud God gave them a good father. My sincere condolences to the family. God's Word says that if you don't work you do not deserve to eat. Mitzi

I will always remember Jerry as a fine example for others. He was intelligent and kind. Being kind is what counts in life and he was that! A kind thoughtful man, who happened to be really intelligent. I will always remember him as the kid who came to Bruch School one winter and made us all better people!
