“ Joyce was an angel on earth....she cared for everyone, she was always soft spoken, she never wished bad on anyone, she was always there and ready for service, be it the church, the ambulance service, work, a friend in need and always, always for her family. To Joyce, the whole world was her family. Always a smile, kind word, concern and a wonderful twinkle in her eye. Joyce, enjoy your eternity with Christ, you will be missed down here, but you deserve to be with Him. Watch over us, and please show us the way. All my love to Jim and family.

“ As a "co-grandma" with Joyce (Kayla & Kiki Foley), I have many fond memories of Joyce and our visits together: their traveling to California several times for Julie and Billy's wedding, lunch at Charlie's Chili, visiting Park Falls for FlambeauRama and camping in their back yard, a trip to Lambeau Field and Green Bay. Joyce was such a nice person! AND she truly loved her children, grandchildren and great grandchildre "to the moon and back". I'm sure the entire Foley Family will be missing her forever. Heaven just got a new Angel! Fly high, Joyce!
