“ Kay lived with my mother and I when she was finishing high school in Park Falls. She met Arnie at our home and when they married I stood up in her wedding. I haven't seen her for a number of years, however she was the topic of conversation many times remembering her and some of the crazy things we did and my youngest son Clay, worked for her at Radio Shack. She was there for me in my time of need as I was for her. Love you Kay. Joan Tapplin/Stuckenberg
