

Kenneth J. Brickheimer

May 21, 1924 - June 11, 2021

Kenneth J. Brickheimer

Age 97, of Butternut, died on Friday June 11, 2021 at Park Manor Nursing Home in Park Falls. He was born on May 21, 1924 in Marshfield, the son of Leo and Ella (Holtz) Brickheimer. On January 20, 1945 he married Iris Gorke. The couple lived in Marshfield until 1958 when the family moved to Butternut and purchased a resort and bar. Several years later, after selling the bar and resort Ken and Iris converted part of the resort into a campground. They operated the campground until their retirement. Ken was an avid member of the Butternut Lions Club and enjoyed woodworking. He was a very generous man who enjoyed spending time with his family and friends.

He is survived by:

(3)children:

Jerry (Mary) Brickheimer of Marshfield

Carol (Ken) Tomaier of Butternut

Joan (Steve) Holtan of Stoughton

his daughter-in-law Carol Brickheimer of Butternut

(9)grandchildren, (17)great-grandchildren

his sister: Janet Branstiter of Arizona and many nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Iris, his son Bill, and sisters: Marie Aigner and Ginny Yaeger.

A memorial service will be held at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Butternut on Saturday July 31, 2021 at 11:00am. Deacon Robert Schienbeck will officiate.

A visitation will be held at the church from 10:00am until the hour of the service.

Birch Street Funeral Service is assisting the family.
