“ Lindsey and Alex, Gary and I think and talk about your Dad every day, “Kevin’s getting rain today” “It’s a good Sunday to meet Kevin at Harbor View today” and oh how I miss his occasional funny and caring texts and videos of his eagles and deer. I hope his doe and baby found a new safe place. His birds will miss the bacon grease covered paper plate next winter. Ruby misses you too! And the egg and bacon topped dog food when you watched her. You were such a great friend to so many up here in WI, and we were so lucky to know him (Gary’s Army Buddy❤️) This poster greets us every time we go in the basement 🥹 Love and miss your Dad, so sorry for your great loss...

“ I remember all the times going up to the cabin as we were young. Me and my brother Matt, my dad Rich, Lindsey and Alex, uncle Jim and Terry. The 4 wheeler trips. Those nights where everybody was laughing. He always found a way to have fun. He would treat me and my brother as if we were his own. Hence why we always called him uncle Kevin, because to us he was family. He was my dad's best friend, growing up they were always helping each other with projects around the houses. Miss you Uncle Kevin. Lindsey and Alex, I'm so sorry about your loss. I'll never forget the memories we shared.

It's been many years since I heard your laughter. You were a kind person. You were also one of the guys. I enjoyed watching you all when the group got together. The singing and y'all's silly made up songs and your playful teasing will always be remembered. Rest in Heaven old friend. Lovey
