

Lee Richard Reukema

December 29, 1953 - October 15, 2014

Lee Richard Reukema passed away October 15, 2014. He is survived by his long time love Bonnie Reukema, his sister Barb Miller, three children Jason (Tami) Pollnow, Sarah Reukema, Richard (Makala) Reukema and three grandchildren Jayde, Dayna, and Marlie.

He was born to Richard "Dick" Reukema and Virginia Reukema on December 29, 1953. He had love of the northwoods from a young age and would spend every available summer in Clam Lake, WI. Lee moved to Clam Lake in 1978 and began working with his father at Dick's Auto Body. His skills and talent were rewarded by the many trophies he received at various car shows. Lee had a fondness for the mustang. When he wasn't returning cars to their original glory he was fishing.

He was a great bodyman, a wonderful father and husband, and an expert fisherman. He will be loved and missed by many.
