“ Never met anyone nicer to children. I still have very fond memories of her from my days back in Sunday School many moons ago. Although I grew up and moved a long way away, I never forgot her and the kindness she always showed to us all.

She always had that big smile for the kids:)

“ Lois was one of the most beautiful people I ever knew. She was so loving and caring with the Sunday School children who returned their love to her. She was a Christian who was always willing to tell others of Christ and his love. I worked with her on Christmas programs which certainly showed her patience as well. How much she gave of herself to others!! Jan Kneer

She always had such a twinkle in her eye! Loved her friendship with my mom. They wouldn't see each other that often but it was just like they saw each other every day!
