

Luana Marie Bucheger

November 13, 1927 - September 21, 2020

Luana Marie Bucheger

Age 92, of Butternut, passed away on Monday September 21, 2020 at River's Edge in Park Falls. She was born on November 13, 1927 in Butternut, the daughter of Louis and Myrtle (Dougherty) Pichler. On June 28, 1947 she married the love of her life, Robert "Bud" Bucheger, whom she is now reunited with. She was a selfless and loving mother, grandmother, and friend. Luana was born in Butternut and a lifelong resident of the area. In addition to her years spent raising nine children she also was employed as a Laundry Manager for the Flambeau Hospital. She was active in the community through membership in the Butternut Homemakers, the Red Hatters, several bowling leagues, and her activity in the Parish. While Luana enjoyed gardening, fishing, playing Scrabble and cards, her favorite activity of all was spending time with her family and friends. In Luana's eyes, every day was a beautiful day, and she spread that joy to everyone she met.

She is survived by:

(7)children

Ronald (Ruth) of Oakhurst, CA

Richard (Anne) of Madison

Daniel of Butternut

Michael (Terry) of Glidden

Cheryl "Skeeter" (Tony) Kovarik of Park Falls

Lori (Gordie) Hall of Glidden

“ Luana wrote the best letters. What a great day it was when one would arrive. She had a way of making everone feel loved. One year at Christmas, she gave me a jar of her strawberry jam with a note. It said " this whole jar is for you to eat" She knew that I would sit down with a spoon and down 1/2 that jam in one sitting. What a special angel.

“ What a great lady Luana was, always quick with a friendly smile and chat. Hard worker for sure. My sympathy to all her family and a special hug to Skeeter and Glenda.
