“ I have fond memories of Lucy who was my English teacher from my sophomore through my senior years in high school, I believe that is correct. But it may have been only two of those three years. I don't have my yearbooks or memory book down here with me so I'm not really sure. She was a very special lady and friend who will be missed by most of the people in Park Falls and Butternut. She was very fortunate to have found Jim Nissen and married him after her first husband passed away. Jim took such good care of her for all the years when she was so sick. Well, she is probably in a better place now and she is no longer handicapped or blind. Lucy was a wonderful asset to the two local schools where she taught and she will be remembered by most of the people in the communities up there with fondness.

Lucy, you will be missed in so many ways. It was wonderful to see the love between you and Jim. I would laugh on Valentine's Day as I passed your house and in the snow, Jim had spray painted "I love Lucy". RIP, sweet lady.

Lucy was my English teacher in Butternut. We all loved her! She would spend hrs. helping us prepare for Forensics, using class time. I always enjoyed seeing her and Jim out walking, holding hands. Always smiling!
