“ Aunt Bonnie, we've had a couple of private conversations that I will always cherish. I'll never forget the pictures of you and Sharon at Grandma's house, the ones from High School....the timeless elegance and beauty.
As much as I want to be sad, I know that you've devoted your life to preparing for this journey. I can't think of a more deserving person to stand before God. I can hear it now-Boop is calling out "Hey Ma....!"
Give Mr. French a treat for me. Until we meet again.

I remember spending summers in Park Falls with my grandma Matilda Grassel.(Aunt Bill) We always had to go visit her niece Bonnie Jehn. We would drive up to the house where we would be welcomed and sit in her beautiful kitchen where there was always some treats. Sometimes Booper would come home and greet his Honey while we were there.
