“ I extend my condolences to the family of Philip. I was one of his teachers in high school. It was a boarding high school and we had a rule that the students were not allowed to smoke. One day (May 11, 1976 shortly after noon) I caught Philip smoking. I told him he ought to stop and he asked why and I told him: It's bad for you. And he replied: If it's bad for me, why isn't it bad for you? He had me. I said to him: Philip, if you try to quit, I'll try to quit. I threw 8 packs of cigarettes into the incinerator and I have never smoked again. Thank you, Philip, for your courage in telling me the truth -- although I wanted to smack you at the time.

“ My heart breaks for you Robin. 42 years ❤️ I remember a story from when Aunt Betty, Kay and mom drove out to see you all. Phil had made some chocolate wine. Kay who doesn't drink except for a sip on Sundays before Covid put that on hold even tried it. Hard to say no to smiling cousin Phil. I loved seeing his motorcycle pictures posted on Facebook and his zest for life. Much love to you Robin and all Phil's family. 🙏 May he rest in peace. Jean

“ One of my most precious moments of Phil is when we were at Plan B and he asked me to dance a polka which I haven't done in years. I felt my body just relax as he was such a gentle man! Someday e will dance the polka again!

“ Philip always had that great big goofy grin that just made me smile. I loved riding in the dune buggy as kids when we would come visit. I also loved the bond he had with each and every sibling and the deep love and respect he had for his parents. He truly was a blessing and I will miss seeing him when I get back to Wisconsin in the future for motorcycle races at Elkhart lake
