“ Mr. Ludwig was my Bookkeeping teacher at Lincoln High as well as Advisor to the TORCH Senior year when I was the Editor of our yearbook. I remember his patience, his humor, and most of all, his sage advice. He encouraged me to check out the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater. How thankful I was for his suggestion. It was there I met my roommate of four years who had Mr. Ludwig when she was a student at Parker HS in Janesville. She, too, mentioned his patience as a teacher. I graduated from Whitewater, and taught Business Education for many years. All along, I kept in contact with Mr. Ludwig. He was always so thankful for my calls, interested in what not only me, but my family - how we were doing. It was a tough last call with him in October when he told me about his cancer. He's left his mark on many students who were fortunate to have him as their teacher in Janesville, Fifield and Park Falls.

What a great couple he and Joan were! I knew him first as one of my high school teachers and then met his lovely wife with the hospital auxiliary. They will both be missed. My sympathy to the family.

“ Mr. Ludwig was a wonderful, caring teacher. I have often thought of him as I sit at my computer keyboard blasting out missives and I remember asking him if he really thought it was important for me to learn to type! HA! Was he ever right.

As said before, his wonderful sense of humor kept us all in stitches!

RIP Mr. Ludwig

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Dick (Mr. Ludwig to anyone who had him for a teacher) was the BEST business teacher I ever had. Because of him I became a business teacher too when I went to Whitewater. Then I did my practice teaching under him and then he visited my school to sell business books. So you see, he had a tremendous effect on me for many years. This summer he attended our 1962 class reunion. As usual, it was difficult to call him Dick instead of Mr. Ludwig because I respected him so much. I will not be able to attend the wake in Park Falls or go to the funeral but please realize that your father/grandfather/great-grandfather was an AWESOME man and tremendous mentor. I am so glad he was a part of my life.

“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Dick on Friday nights when he would enjoy his fish fry. My son and I both loved visiting with him and listening to his stories. My favorite stories were the ones about his hummingbirds and how many he had to feed. Dick had the best sense of humor and such a kind and gentle personality. His advice to me was always 'be good or be good at it' which I read often in a special place in my classroom. We will all miss him dearly! God bless all of his family and friends.
