He played cribbage and enjoyed being a cribbage coach for his granddaughter, Lauren, when she and Mary Jane would play. He worked a variety of crossword puzzles (the hard ones) on a daily basis and played scrabble online. He and Mary Jane enjoyed travelling and visiting the casinos. Richard took up golf and played on golf leagues in both Park Falls and Arizona, where he and Mary Jane spent their winters. He also enjoyed visits from his daughter and granddaughter. He especially loved visits from Ol' Ruffy, the best Golden Retriever ever.

Richard was preceded in death by his parents, Emil and Theresa as well as his daughter, Susan, and his sisters, Liz and Kath, and his companion, Mary Jane. “ He was a supervisor at the DOT and I worked with him on many small projects later in his career. I enjoyed working with him and we reminisced about growing up in Park Falls. He was older but we knew a lot of the same people and relatives.

“ Rich was a great brother when we had to work on my mothers house he was there. We built a garage sided replace window. He could be very opinionated at times but the job got done. He lost his dad at 16 and that left all of us in a pickle. He tried to step in for our dad but that wasn't going to work. I will always miss some of the guidance he gave on problems with paving project but he was there. Good job Rich
