“ Chow will be missed by many. He was a friendly, easy going and humorous guy. I remember he used to come out to the Timber Lodge to eat. One time we walked down to the lake and he took wonderful pics of the sunset. I was always happy to see him come in the door and i miss that. My deepest, heartfelt condolences to the family. JW

“ Bob loved taking his kids fishing hunting and doing sports with them. He wanted to see them strive to do their best. He loved playing ball with his grandchildren. He was a coach and ref to many others. If you ran into him on the street or in a gas station he could talk your head off. He will be greatly missed by many. My prayers and love go out to his family and friends but most of all to our three sons who lost a wonderful dad. God's blessings.

“ Chow, was more then a father to me he was, a military brother, he was my best friend and he was a coach to me. So many will miss his smile and the conversations with him. His name will go untainted forever. For now he is held in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. As I always told him "Live a life they would be proud to live." My dad has now become one of the theys I talked about. We will be strong and celebrate your life until we meet on again. Love ya old man
