

Robert "Woody" J. Hamann

October 17, 1939 - September 23, 2024

Robert John "Woody" Hamann of Butternut, WI passed peacefully at home Sept 23, 2024. Bob was also born at home in Butternut on Oct 17th, 1939, where he resided his entire life except for his tour of duty in the U.S. Navy.

We are sure Bob was greeted in heaven by the love of his life, his wife of 50 years, Gail Hamann, his parents Edwin and Irene Hamann, brother Edwin Hamann, and sisters Thelma McKuen and Karen Esslinger

Those left to mourn are his children. Kathy (John) Martin of Butternut, Bob Hamann of Butternut and Lorie (Bill) Fourhman of Mansfield, OH. His two grandsons, Ryan (Angie) Fourhman and Josh Fourhman. And two great grandchildren, Violet and Clayton Fourhman. His brothers, Peter Hamann and Dan (Cathy) Hamann and sisters Diane Mallak and Pat "Peachy" Jeffries.

Bob was known by his grandsons as 50% Grizzly Adams and 50% MacGyver; you only needed to be acquainted with Bob to know this was true. A woodsman his entire life, there was little else he wasn't proficient at. A trait often tested by late night visits from local farmers, needing a piece of equipment repaired. Bob personified Matthew 6:3-4 (But when you give to someone in need, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. Give your gifts in private, and your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.)

Bob's sense of humor, love of life, and willingness to always lend a hand were traits well known in his community. Please join the family as we celebrate Bob on Oct 19th at St Paul's Lutheran Church, Butternut. Visitation will be at 0930, service at 1100, with military honors under the auspices of the Butternut American Legion Post, followed by a meal and a chance to share a memory or two.

Birch Street Funeral Service is assisting the family.
