

Ronald Wayne Tank

March 23, 1953 - November 10, 2020

Ronald Wayne Tank

age 67, of Butternut, died peacefully at his home surrounded by family on Tuesday November 10, 2020. He was born on March 23, 1953 in Butternut, the son of Otto and Margaret (Hoffman) Tank. Ronald graduated from the Butternut High School in 1971 and then entered the United States Navy serving on the USS Enterprise as an Aviation Electronics Technician during the Vietnam War until 1975. On March 23, 1985 he married Sherry Gummo and had two children, Nicholas and Stephanie. Ronald worked in road construction for 30 years as an operator and plant forman for American Asphalt. He loved grouse and deer hunting, walleye fishing in Canada with his family, travelling, watching the air shows at EAA, listening to 60s & 70s classic rock music, and watching anything on the history channel. He also really enjoyed mowing his large lawn and working on projects around the house. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends and was especially proud of his son and daughter.

“ Ron, was an amazing foreman / mentor that always took time to explain how we needed to address problems to keep an asphalt plant in running order. We shared a lot of laughter throughout the many years I was blessed to work with Ron. He is definitely someone American Asphalt and myself will never forget.
