“ Roz was my Aunt by marriage. She married my Uncle Manny after he lost his first wife, my Aunt Jeannette.

Roz was a beautiful lady. She was a wonderful cook and when we would visit from CA, she welcomed us with open arms and a delicious home-cooked meal. But, most importantly, she loved my Uncle Manny and gave him 21 years of happiness. Rest in peacefully in Heaven Roz. ❤️

“ Roz always made us Knucklehead friends of her son Larry feel welcome in her home. Always greeted us with a big smile, how you doing, want some coffee or ice tea? Such a friendly and lively person, sure will be missed.

“ I am a first cousin to Roz and have known her since childhood. My best memory of her was the care and kindness she gave to her mother Mary in her last days. I also remember, as a young boy, how vivacious and lovely she was as a young lady. She remained so throughout her life.
