“ Rose was a classy lady. We met her only once on her 101st birthday when my Father-in-law took some flowers to her. We met some of her family that morning and at 9 AM were drinking a toast with Kummel to Rose's birthday. Our deepest sympathy to the family. You must have a lot of wonderful memories of Rose as we certainly do after spending only an hour or so with her that day. May God be with you in this time of sadness.

“ I have so many memories of my beloved Aunt, but I remember that it felt like she saved my life once, when I got stung by hornets after disturbing a nest. When she saw me and my swelling elbow, she raced out the kitchen door, grabbed two handfuls of mud, and came in and slathered it all over my stings. And then she sat with me and watched me until she knew I was going to live, (which was almost right away). There is a precious memory of almost every time I saw her...she was such a blessing to us all. Rest in peace dear Rose, I know you'll be wrapped in God's arms for all eternity.
