“ So sorry to hear about Sandy’s passing. She and I go back a long way. Classmates for all of K-12 except for a couple years during WWII. Our homes were just a few houses apart on 7th Ave. Many, many memories. As young kids playing “Kick the Can” under street lights in front of her house. Both of us in Grade and HS band. She was my piano accompanist for an aborted cornet solo our junior year. While I played basketball and football, Sandy was a cheerleader. We were confidants all through school as we coped with the trials and tribulations of those teenage years. Sandy and I were attendants for her older sister’s wedding. One of my favorite memories is what we called our “lost weekend” our senior year. Class play on Thursday night. We then dated for prom Friday night, followed by very early and long bus trip to Madison on Saturday for the state HS music festival competition. I know she will be missed by many friends and her family. My condolences to all as you celebrate her life!

Sincerely,
Larry “Gib” Gibson
