“ With the recent passing of my wife in February, I know the feeling of the emptiness of losing someone that you shared many fond memories with. Growing up in the rural Glidden area in the 50's and 60's until my senior year in high school, there are a many fond Huck Finn / Tom Sawyer stories that could be told of the younger year adventures I had with story book characters such Sheriden Schock, Allan ( Elmer) Ernest, Bob ( Sox) Kempf, Bob (Snuffy) Parks etc. and each adventure with these characters, a story book within itself. These younger adventures were priceless and bring a many smiles when relived in thought. Rest in peace Sheriden, your legacy and stories will live within the many of us who knew you and grew up with you. Your friend, Erv Thoms Jr.
