“ I have so many memories of Steve beginning way back in his elementary school days when he was a special friend to our son. When we moved into the house we live in now he was a teenager and he and several of our friends other buddies helped us move furniture, including a very heavy piano. In adulthood he would stop in now and again to shoot the breeze with us. When we saw him behind the wheel of the cement truck he always had a wave and a smile. He will be dearly missed. Rest in peace, Bud.
