“ Tim was my big brother. We were only 22 months apart. On my first day of school I thought I was in his class so I took my best friend Becky to his class on the first day of school. Tim and I used to play in the mud with trucks and cars all day. Tim was a very kind generous man he would help anyone without being asked. His soul was kind and forgiving. I'm going to miss him very much. We all love you . Fly with the angels give mom dad Keith and Kenneth big hugs from us. Love your baby sister Rochelle and family 💕💕
