“ Virginia will be missed by all who knew her. She was a great person showing love to all who were lucky enough to have crossed her path. She was strong, kind hearted, loving and one of a kind. Now she will have to suffer no longer...rest in peace with the angels.

“ Our family was very close to Micky and Virginia. Debbie went to Florida with our family. Like my brother posted we always spent time together. If we weren't there they were by our house. I will always remember the times we went to retreats. My heart is with you and you family

“ I've known Virginia since I was a kid and spent many days at the Christianson's home. If we weren't at their home, they'd come out to our house. Mickey and Virginia always welcomed us and were friends we respected and enjoyed spending time with. I especially remember time spent with Dan and Tom and all the good times my parents had with Mickey and Virginia. They helped my parents build their house and make maple sypup. When I think of Virginia, I think generous, kind, loving and too many good things to mention. My heart is heavy today as I will miss her. She was a person that helped me along the path as a child and inspires me to do well as an adult.
