“ To my dear best friend Wendy, oh the times we had in high school and after, to 4 girls sharing apartments, my dear husband Jim Neeck bringing us fuel oil in the winter, to camping with all the baby stuff around the campfire, and she made the best sangria I ever tasted. I will miss you dear friend, as my daughter stated at her brothers funeral grief is a part of love. My deepest sympathies to Larry and boys and the Isham families. Maggie Radlinger Neeck

Wendy had the best giggles and a wonderful sense of humor. She was always willing to listen and help people wit her strength and caring. My heart goes out to Larry, their sons and all the Hammonds and Ishams.

And she was the Best at Bejeweled (dang it I could never beat her at that :)) Going to miss her for sure. Thanks for all the great memories Aunt Wendy see you again someday. Xoxoxox “ Wendy was a wonderful person, loving wife and mother. We were childhood friends and spent many summers having fun at either our cabin or where her family was camping...I have many great memories of those summers. As an adult Wendy was so young at heart and fun to be around. We didn't get together that often as adults but when we did I felt like we were kids again. Her unique laugh is something that I will always remember. I love her great big family and I pray that they can be strong at this time and find support in each other. She will live forever in our hearts.
